

Shepherd Brooks Manor

Medford, Massachusetts

Project Highlights

Shepherd Brooks Estate is listed on the National Register of Historic Places

Designed by noted architects Peabody and Stearns.

Documentation provided a major step forward in preservation.

Mansion includes 21 historic rooms on three floors and all four major elevations, each individually unique responding to the landscape.

Brooks Manor, right, and existing condition drawing, below, created for one of four elevations

Front Elevation

Your Project, Our Role...

Our firm was contracted by the Medford Brooks Estate Land Trust to document the c. 1880 Shepherd Brooks Manor.

This historic house includes 21 rooms on three floors and a full basement and four unique elevations.

This documentation completes a major portion of the preservation work to ensure the manor's self sufficiency.

The Preservation Collaborative specializes in the documentation of historic properties. With a decade or more of experience in this area, we are knowledgeable about getting the task at hand complete.

We pride ourselves in working with small and large museums. Often having multiple resources to manage, our firm assists in ensuring stainability, allowing historic properties remain at the forefront of your collection for decades to come.

