

Medford Mixed Use Building Medford, Massachusetts

Project Highlights

Building is a historic structure located in the heart of Medford.

This building renovated old offices into 12 residential units and 2 commercial retail suites.

Project will provide a lasting re-use life for this building.

Building after renovation, right. Below is the building's first floor plan.

First Floor Plan

Your Project, Our Role...

A private developer worked to turn this circa 1855 commercial building into a mixed use 12 units of residential and 2 commercial retail spaces within the structure.

Our firm has extensive knowledge in turning your projects from design sketches into construction drawings. We provide a full array of services to make your dreams a reality.

Designed under the guidance of B. Goba & Associates, P.C., our firm developed renderings, contract documents and product specifications for masonry cleaning on this sensitive building.

Have a design project in mind?
Contact our firm today!

