

Willowbrook Museum

Newfield, Maine

Project Highlights

Willowbrook Village is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Work documents the two historic farm complex on site and other historic buildings.

Documentation will be used for future grant support and preservation.

Work is completed in conjunction with the Isaac Trafton House HSR.

Willowbrook as seen in an aerial view. Durgin House is at right and Trafton House upper left.

Durgin Barns, below, and interior of the Isaac Trafton House, below right.

Your Project, Our Role...

The 19th century Willowbrook Museum represents preservation of a changing way of life in rural New England. Founded in the late 1960's, the museum has amassed one of the largest collections of rural artifacts in the region.

Our firm documented the two historic house and barn complexes on the grounds of the museum, as well as outbuildings and re-created historic structures.

The Preservation Collaborative specializes in the documentation of historic properties. With a decade or more of experience in this area, we are knowledgeable about getting the task at hand complete.

We pride ourselves in working with small and large museums. Often having multiple resources to manage, our firm assists in ensuring sustainability, allowing historic properties remain at the forefront of your collection for decades to come.

